

Museum
Library
Archives

NEW YORK STATE Office of Cultural Education

Supporting Educators Through Strong
Collaborations

Teacher Professional Development Opportunities

- Onsite Programming with OCE Resources
- Offsite Programming
- Distance Learning

Student-focused Programming

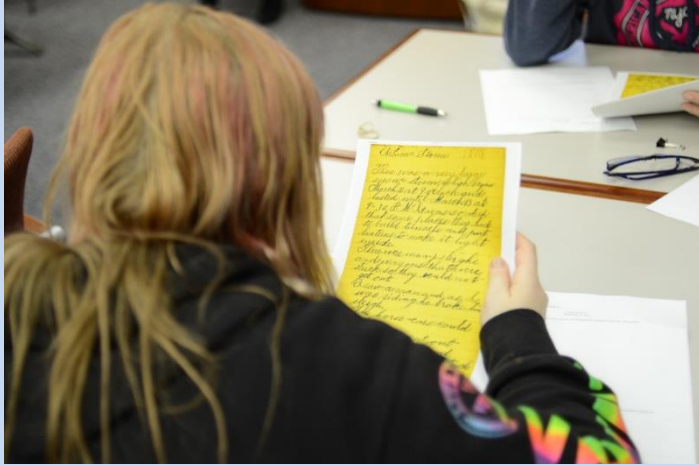

- Museum Instructor Led Programming
- Content Specialist Focused Programming
- Self-guided Museum Experiences

Student-focused Programming

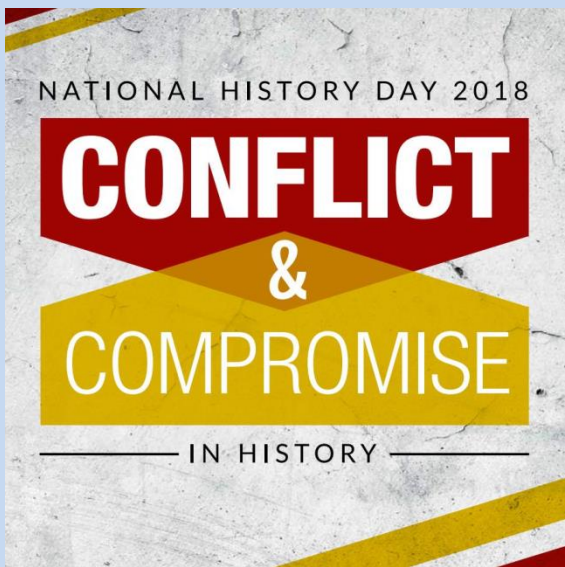

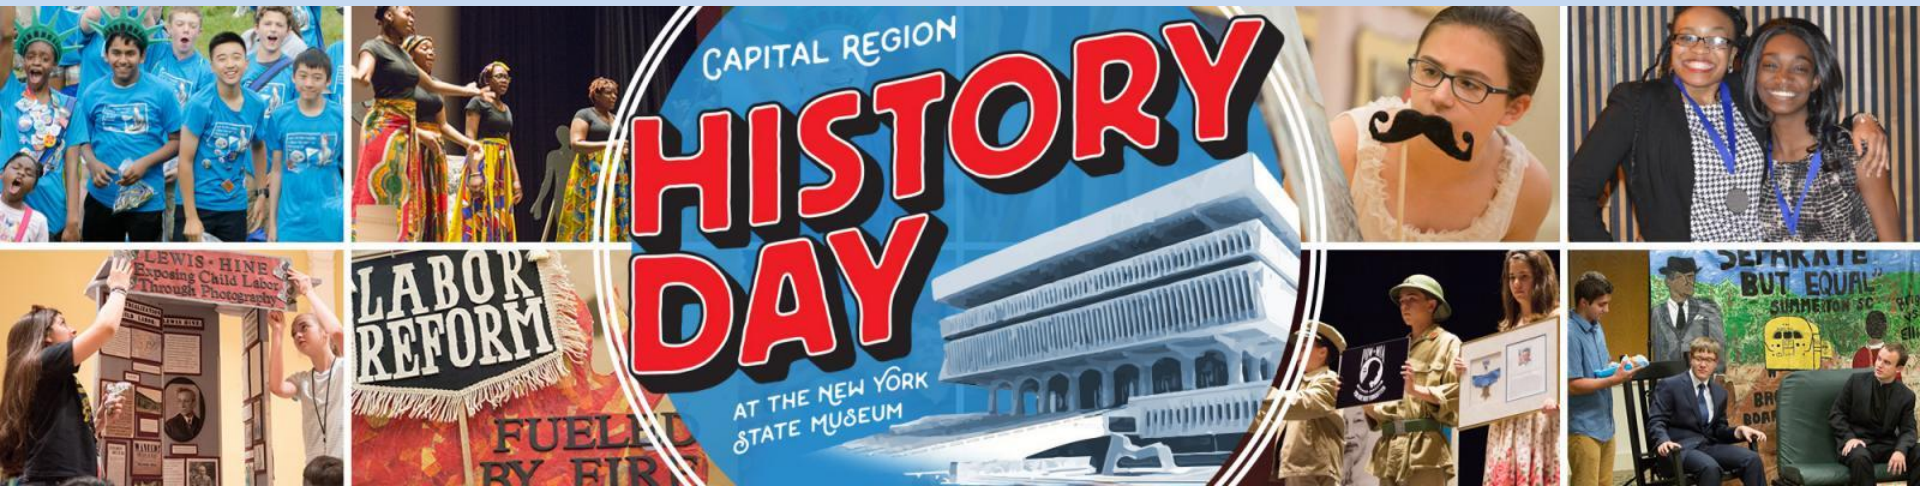

- Teacher Requested
- Focused on use of Primary Resources
- Developed Collaboratively with Educators

Student-focused Programming

- Case Study with Fort Plain Central School District
- NYS Archives and Museum Collaboration

- Student Directed Programming with OCE-wide support
- National History Day
- Student Research Awards

NEW YORK STATE ARCHIVES

STUDENT RESEARCH AWARDS

Close-up view of a winnow series of locks on the Erie Canal at Lockport, New York. In the foreground, a canal boat is pulled along the canal bank having just descended or waiting to ascend the locks. On the right, two teams of horses ascend the hill beside the locks. New York State Archives © 1900

Deadline: JULY 1, 2018

All entrants must use historical records.
Historical records are: Photographs • Letters • Diaries • Maps • Broadsides/posters • Deeds, and more
Categories: Computer-based projects like websites, PowerPoint presentations, etc. • Exhibits
 Documentaries • Performances • Historic marker proposals • Research papers

Individual and group entries welcome.
 Three awards (grades 4-5, 6-8, and 9-12) will be presented in the Fall 2018.

For official guidelines and an entry form:
www.archives.ny.gov
 click on: Education

New York State Archives
 9C49 Cultural Education Center
 Albany, New York 12230
 (518) 474-0926
archedu@ny.gov

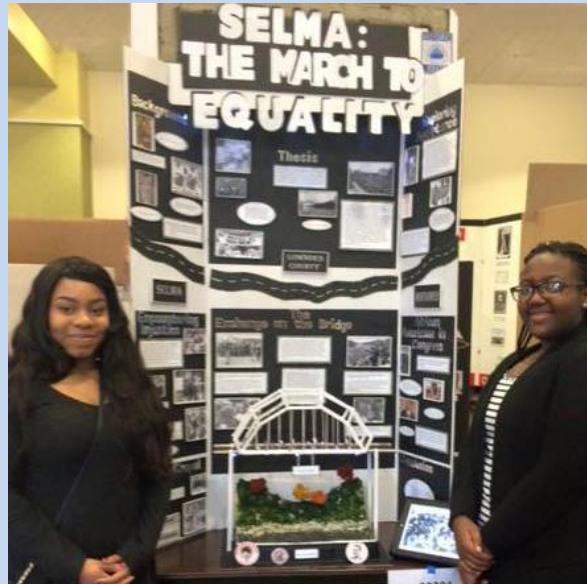

These awards are supported by the Laura and Robert Orin Endowment, grants, contributions, and special grants awarded by the New York State Archives. For more information, contact the New York State Archives or the participating organization committed to ensuring that New York State's history is preserved and accessible to future generations. The State Archives is a program of the New York State Education Department in the Office of Cultural Education.

To view the guidelines and application immediately, scan this code with your smart phone (you'll need a barcode scanner app).

An official entry form must accompany each application.

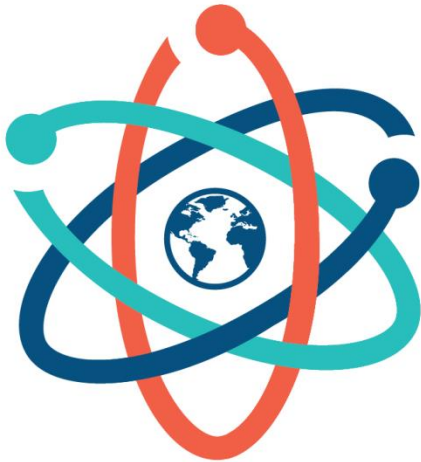

Capital Region History Day

Conferences and Outreach Initiatives

MUSEUM ASSOCIATION
OF NEW YORK

STANYS SCIENCE TEACHERS ASSOCIATION OF
NEW YORK STATE

NYSCSS
New York State
Council For The Social Studies

NYS4A
New York State
Social Studies Supervisory Association

- Teacher Conferences
- Conferences for other professionals in the Museum, Library, and Archives fields

Conferences and Outreach Initiatives

Upcoming Initiatives

- Onsite Programming with OCE Resources
- Offsite Programming
- Distance Learning

Thank you!

Julie Daniels

Director of Public Broadcasting and Educational Television

Kathryn Weller

Chief of Education and Visitor Services
New York State Museum

Mary VanPatten

School Library Media Specialist
Fort Plain Central School District

NEW YORK STATE
EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

OFFICE OF CULTURAL EDUCATION

State Museum

State Library

State Archives

Summer School of the Arts

Public Broadcasting

